Currently in Afghanistan, the Desert Eagle is at the frontlines.

America has the Night Hawk, Tom Cab, War Dancer and HIP. They have five A-class heroes.
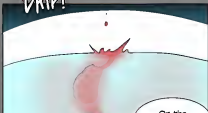

Russia only has three A-class heroes, but has far more B-class ones.

Japan and China have their own versions of heroes.

DRIP!

On the other hand...

Korea still has none.

Choi Mi-hae

That's why we should value each subject, shouldn't we?

I agree, but the higher-ups think otherwise.

The upper management thinks that we'll be a laughing stock on Earth, just like before.

That's why your brother is on the kill list as well.

Well, I think of each of those kids as my own. However, Tae-shik really went all in, so the higher ups wouldn't even lend me an ear.

He ended up spreading all of the goods we sent him.

You see, I really hate kids who go against me.

Chairman Choi...

Han Tae-shik. No. Subject #006.

If I suicide him, will the order be taken down?"

Ah...

Of course"

They're all my precious children,
you know?

creak

I knew it.

I don't know if it's just the thick makeup, but your expression hardly changes when you lie.

Despite knowing about Tae-eok's abilities, you still disregarded the agents.

The order to kill Sung-tae was also under your discretion, wasn't it?

...Yes. Manager Choi Ji-won really loves his girlfriend and her brother...

...Thick makeup.

Sun-ah is not my girlfriend. She's my future wife.

Oh, is that so?

She's still in denial though.

That aside...

This order... was to protect the other kids from unfortunate accidents.

20 years ago.

You were the creator and the managing director of the project [Pig Iron.]

When I take a closer look at my recent activities

I see a lot of inconsistencies.

Professor Choi Mi-nae, what exactly are you after?

...I just want to make a hero of our own country to raise our ranking.

...I understand.

However,

Sung-tae,
listen to me!
Right now,
your sister...

Is in grave danger.

What...? Are you...

I can't tell you the details...
